From its modest beginnings in a small gymnasium to the global phenomenon it is today, basketball's story is packed with interesting facts, pivotal moments, and influential figures.

The Origins of Basketball: How It All Began

Basketball was invented in December 1891 by Dr. James Naismith, a Canadian physical education instructor. Tasked with creating a new indoor game to keep his students active during the cold winters in Springfield, Massachusetts, Naismith developed the basic rules and nailed a peach basket onto the elevated track. The game was simple yet innovative, designed to be less physical than football and more strategic.

Early Rules and Gameplay

The original game had 13 basic rules, which set the foundation for modern basketball. For example, players weren't allowed to run with the ball, and the first games had nine players on each side, quite different from the five-player teams today. The peach basket used as a goal had no holes at the bottom, so the ball had to be retrieved manually after each score, which slowed the game down considerably.
